Every single person/employee that we had any dealings with during the weekend were more than accommodating and personable, right from the golf cart lads to the reception desk, the chef and everyone in between.

All of you that worked with me on the arrangements (for the past year) were so helpful and informative about how to arrange the weekend. Everyone in our group was very pleased with the accommodations, the meals and the golf course.

Thank you again for your help in making this a successful tournament and weekend. A great time was had by all."
